

Finalist for Honors Choir for 2012 American High School Performance Series

Brooke DeGraide was recently notified that she has been accepted as a Finalist in the Honors Choir for the 2012 American High School Honors Performance Series at Carnegie Hall. The Selection Board reviewed her application and selected Brooke to represent the finest high school performers in North America with a performance at Carnegie Hall. Her acceptance to this elite group is a direct result of the talent, dedication and achievements demonstrated in the application process.

Recognition as a Finalist is the first step toward performing as an Alto 1 with the Honors Choir at Carnegie Hall. When Brooke travels to New York City in February she will have the opportunity to learn from Dr. Jeffery Ames and work with other Finalists, get a taste of New York City and, most importantly, perform at Carnegie Hall.

Congratulations Brooke on being selected as a Finalist for the 2012 American High School Honors Performance Series.
